Investment objective and approach

- Aiming to achieve superior long-term risk adjusted returns
- Medium-term time horizon
- Investing primarily in equities and equity related securities of companies incorporated or having their principal business activities in Euroland countries.
- Conviction investing using bottom-up stock-picking with high active weight of 80%+ and tracking error target of 6%
- Flexible, opportunistic, and pragmatic approach, with no sector/country bias and style/market cap agnostic
- Using a macroeconomic overlay to support sector positioning

Monthly Comment

Markets were flat in May, affected by material political uncertainty in Italy and the ongoing slowdown in leading indicators, somewhat compensated by weakness in the €. ELEV A Euroland Selection was up 0.63%, outperforming the index by 213 bps.

Sector allocation had a positive impact in the month thanks to our underweight position in Financials. Stock selection also had a positive impact, particularly within Consumer Discretionary and in Energy. Indeed, the Fund benefited from the sharp appreciation of Puma with the spin off from Kering making the company investable again whilst the brand continues to have strong global momentum. In addition, a number of recent IPOs in which we participated, Stemmer Imaging and Team17 in particular, had a strong positive impact. On the contrary, the value portion of the portfolio, banks in particular, was affected by the Italian crisis and was a drag on performance. Italian utility, Iren, was also under pressure despite its relative defensiveness.

In May, we initiated a position in Beiersdorf. We are very impressed by the growth rates delivered by this family-owned group, not only by their Nivea brand but also by their upmarket cosmetic brand, La Prairie. In our view, this acceleration of growth does not look captured in consensus expectations. On the other hand, we sold Rocket Internet after a strong performance. More generally, we have continued to reduce the cyclical and financial exposure in the portfolio in light of the sustained deterioration in leading indicators. Subsequently, the Fund now has a growth bias at 65.9% of the portfolio's exposure.

Since inception, Eleva Euroland Selection is up 9.57%, an outperformance of 641 bps to the EURO Stoxx Index (SXXT).
