Investment objective and approach

- Aiming to achieve superior long-term risk adjusted returns
- Medium-term time horizon
- Investing primarily in European equities and equity related securities
- Conviction investing using bottom-up stock-picking with high active weight of 80%+ and tracking error target of 6%
- Flexible, opportunistic, and pragmatic approach, with no sector/country bias and style/market cap agnostic
- Using a macroeconomic overlay to support sector positioning

Monthly Comment

After a positive note in January, markets dropped in February on renewed fears of a comeback of inflation and its impact on central bank policies. February also saw most European companies reporting their Q4 2017 results, adding volatility to the markets. Eleva European Selection was down 3.78% in the month, slightly outperforming the index by 3 bps.

Sector allocation had a positive impact during the month, supported by the underweight in Industrials and Health Care, whilst stock picking had a negative impact, particularly within Energy and Information Technology. On the strongest contributors, banks have continued to perform well with good Q4 reports and positive share price reaction for Erste Group and Danske Bank in particular. MasMovil, the Spanish telecom operator, was the best contributor for the period after reporting record subscriber net adds and above expectations guidance. In addition, Oriflame, the Swedish cosmetics group, also announced very respectable results with strong growth and margins across almost all its geographies. On the contrary, Energy names (Aker BP, RDS) were under pressure with Brent prices moving from USD65boe to USD60 during the month. Sophos Group, the technology company, saw profit taking after the company released bookings for Q4 below market expectations.

In February, we initiated a position in family-owned Coca-Cola HBC, bottler to the Coca-Cola Company. In our view, supplementary to strong end markets, the company has balance sheet optionality with either accretive acquisition or cash return to shareholders. We also commenced a position in Gas Natural, the Spanish utility. A new CEO joined this month and we believe the company will be better managed and more shareholder friendly. In an environment where the outlook for LNG prices is improving, thanks to China walking away from coal, we see potential from restructuring and accelerated cost cutting. On the contrary, we sold our positions in FincoBank and Wessanen, both having reached our target price. The Fund maintains a value bias at 60% of the portfolio's exposure. Since inception, Eleva European Selection is up 27.66%, an outperformance of 1683 bps to the STOXX 600 Total Return (SXXR).
